

ROBERTS BRINGS CAMPAIGN TO END; SPEAKS AT LYRIC

Large Crowd Hears Governor in Talk for Re-Election. Strict Law Enforcement Is Official's Theme.

Gov. A. H. Roberts, brought his campaign for re-nomination and re-election to a close in Shelby county Wednesday with three speeches. The first was delivered at Collierville, the second at Lucy, and at night he spoke to an audience of about 500 at the Lyric theater.

L. M. Stratton, chairman, and J. E. Holmes, vice-chairman, of the Shelby county Roberts committee, accompanied the governor from the time he arrived in the Southern inn at Collierville until he left at 11 o'clock Wednesday night for Nashville.

The meeting at the Lyric theater Wednesday night was surprisingly large, considering the lack of interest that has been manifested in politics during the campaign.

Mr. Stratton introduced the speaker, and Mr. Holmes introduced the speaker. The governor was much encouraged by reports from state headquarters, which said that he would carry the state by a majority of 25,000.

Whether or not the Democracy of this nation is to be destroyed by the establishment of an invisible government, whether law and order shall remain in control of the destinies of the state and nation is, Gov. Roberts said in his speech at the Lyric a question that all Americans must answer.

Strict law enforcement, the protection of the person and property of every man, woman and child, white or black, and equal rights to all, with special privileges to none, were proclaimed as the governor's policy on this question.

The supremacy of the law at all times and maintenance of all the rights guaranteed under the constitution were always uppermost in his mind, he said.

The right of every man to enjoy the fruits of his labor is founded upon the Ten Commandments, Gov. Roberts said, and should be kept inviolable throughout the ages.

I am not opposed to labor, either union or nonunion, and I believe in the laboring man bargaining, either collectively or individually, as he sees fit. I do not believe for one minute that the great mass of laboring men are against law enforcement, nor do I believe that they want to see set up in America an invisible government such is now the order in certain foreign lands.

But, among the laboring men, as well as among other classes, there are a few men who are agitators, and who would, if they could, destroy our government and set up in its stead a reign of despotism. It is against these men, regardless of their station in life, that I am opposed, and I propose, as long as I am governor, to maintain and uphold our government with every resource at my command.

Employees of the Bry-Block Mercantile company will be guests of the firm at the big annual picnic and barbecue at Dale Springs, Raleigh road, on Aug. 22, according to plans being laid by officials of the firm.

The annual outing of Bry's employees has always been a big event and the approaching event is being awaited with much interest.

MRS. M. S. RHEA DIES.

Brief funeral services for Mrs. Maize Rhea, who died Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock after a long illness, were held at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Turley, 83 North Belvedere boulevard, at 3:30 p.m. Thursday, prior to the forwarding of the body to Covington, Tenn., for burial.

The Rev. George H. Martin was to officiate.

Mrs. Rhea is survived by her father, G. B. Sale; two sons, Walter Preston and Henry Sale Rhea; four sisters, Mrs. R. L. Taylor, Mrs. Marvin Duckworth, Mrs. John Turley and Mrs. Clinton McKay; and two brothers, Drs. H. W. and W. W. Sale.

Some counties of the state, he said, had received more money from the state than they actually paid into the treasury.

He pointed out that the inequalities as practiced had resulted in these favored counties enjoying a court system, having their insane and blind children cared for, and other state privileges, without costing them one cent.

This tax was borne, he said, by other counties of the state.

Gov. Roberts refrained throughout his address from personal attacks upon his opponent and confined himself to a frank discussion of the issues of the campaign and with reading from the record the attitude of Col. Crabtree.
